I. JURISDICTION:

1. The jurisdiction of this Court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343(4), 2201 and 2202, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., and 42 U.S.C. § 1983. This is a suit authorized and instituted pursuant to Title VII of the Act of Congress known as the "Civil Rights Act of 1964," as amended, the "Civil Rights Act of 1991," 42 U.S.C. § 1981, and 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The jurisdiction of this

The plaintiff-intervenor and the class she seeks to represent only seek equitable relief by this suit and do not seek damages under the Civil Rights Act of 1991 or 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 or 1983.

2. The Plaintiff-intervenor has fulfilled all conditions precedent to the institution of this action under Title VII of the Act of Congress known as the "Civil Rights Act of 1964," as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e, et. seq., the "Civil Rights Act of 1991," 42 U.S.C. § 1981, and 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Plaintiff-intervenor filed her charges of race discrimination with the EEOC within 180 days of the occurrence of the last discriminatory act and timely filed her race discrimination claims within 90 days of the receipt of her right-to-sue letter from the EEOC. In addition, she is relying on her own EEOC charge and those of the other plaintiffs and plaintiff-intervenors.

II. PARTIES:

3. Plaintiff-Intervenor, Vivian Handy, is a black citizen of the United States and a resident of the State of Alabama. Ms. Handy is employed by the defendant, State of Alabama, and its defendant agency, the State Personnel Department.

4. The plaintiff-intervenor brings this action on her own behalf and on behalf of all other black persons similarly situated pursuant to Rule 23(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

The class which the plaintiff-intervenor seeks to represent is composed of black persons who are employed, have been employed, or who may in the future be employed by the defendants. There are common questions of law and fact affecting the rights of the members of the class who are, and continue to be limited, classified and discriminated against in ways which deprive or tend to deprive them of equal terms, conditions, or privileges of employment. These persons are so numerous that joinder of all members is impractical. A common relief is sought. The interests of said class are adequately represented by the plaintiff-intervenors. Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class.

5. Defendant, State of Alabama, is an entity subject to suit under Title VII of the Act of Congress known as the "Civil Rights Act of 1964," as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., the "Civil Rights Act of 1991," and 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 and 1983. The defendant employs at least fifteen (15) persons.

6. Defendant, State of Alabama Personnel Board is an entity subject to suit under Title VII of the Act of Congress known as the "Civil Rights Act of 1964," as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., the "Civil Rights Act of 1991," and 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 and 1983. The defendant employs at least fifteen (15) persons.

7. Defendant, State of Alabama Personnel Department, is an entity subject to suit under Title VII of the Act of Congress known as the "Civil Rights Act of 1964," as amended, 42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq., the "Civil Rights Act of 1991," and 42 U.S.C. §§1981 and 1983. The defendant employs at least fifteen (15) persons.

8. Defendant, Halycon Vance Ballard, as the Director of the Personnel Department, State of Alabama, is named individually and in her official capacity and as such is subject to suit under Title VII of the Act of Congress known as the "Civil Rights Act of 1964," as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., the "Civil Rights Act of 1991," and 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 and 1983.

9. Defendant, Fob James, Governor of the State of Alabama, in his official capacity, is the Chief Executive Officer of the State of Alabama and has the ultimate authority over the operations and policies of all of the defendants and as such is subject to suit under Title VII of the Act of Congress known as the "Civil Rights Act of 1964," as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., the "Civil Rights Act of 1991," and 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 and 1983.

10. Defendant, Department of Rehabilitation Services, is an agency of the State of Alabama and an entity subject to suit under Title VII of the Act of Congress known as the "Civil Rights Act of 1964," as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., the "Civil Rights Act of 1991," and 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 and 1983. The defendant employs at least fifteen (15) persons.

III. CAUSES OF ACTION:

11. The plaintiff-intervenor and the class she seeks to represent re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1-10 above with the same force and effect as if fully set out in specific detail hereinbelow.

12. The defendants have discriminated against the plaintiff-intervenor and the class she seeks to represent on the basis of race in hiring, rehiring, evaluations, compensation, transfers, job duty assignments, recruitment, screening, selection procedures, denial of promotions, discipline, demotions, rollbacks, sick leave, subjective decision-making practices, and other terms and conditions of employment which have resulted in disparate impact and treatment of the plaintiff-intervenor and the plaintiff class.

13. Plaintiff-Intervenor, Vivian Handy, has been employed by the defendants, the State of Alabama for over ten years and is currently holding the position of Personnel Assistant I within the State Personnel Department. Since 1995, Handy has continuously sought a promotion to the position of Personnel Assistant II and Personnel Assistant III.

14. The State of Alabama, the State of Alabama Personnel Board, State of Alabama Personnel Department, Haylcon Vance Ballard and the Department of Rehabilitation Services discriminated against plaintiff and other blacks as a class in the formation and implementation of the register for the position of Personnel Assistant III and Personnel Assistant II, as well as other positions which plaintiff has applied or wanted to apply.

15. This systemic discrimination further adversely affects plaintiff's status as an employee and other black employees by promoting and reinforcing racial stereotypes and bias in hiring, promotions, training, transfers, job assignments, job classifications, discipline, demotions, job assignments, evaluations, supervision, training, compensation, benefits, and other terms and conditions and privileges of her employment in her current position of Personnel Assistant I. Such discriminatory denial of job assignments, training, and experience results, in lower scores and rankings on applications for promotions than are received by white Personnel Assistant I's. This discriminatory practice will inevitably prevent the plaintiff from achieving her career goal to become employed as a Personal Analyst III (10843) or a Department Personnel Manager III (10853).

16. The plaintiff-intervenor and the class she seeks to represent are seeking to redress the wrongs alleged herein and this suit for equitable relief, including back-pay, injunctive relief and a declaratory judgment are her only means of securing adequate relief. The plaintiff-intervenor and the class she seek to represent are now suffering and will continue to suffer irreparable injury from the defendants' unlawful policies and practices as set forth herein unless enjoined by this Court.

IV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF:

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff-intervenor and the class she seeks to represent respectfully pray that this Court assume jurisdiction of this action and after trial:

1. Issue a declaratory judgment that the employment policies, practices, procedures, conditions and customs of the defendants are violative of the rights of the plaintiff-intervenor and the plaintiff class as secured by Title VII of the Act of Congress known as the "Civil Rights Act of 1964," as amended, 42

U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., the "Civil Rights Act of 1991," 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 and 1983.

2. Grant the plaintiff-intervenor and the plaintiff class a permanent injunction enjoining the defendants, their agents, successors, employees, attorneys and those acting in concert with the defendants and at the defendants' request from continuing to violate Title VII of the Act of Congress known as the "Civil Rights Act of 1964," as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., the "Civil Rights Act of 1991," 42 U.S.C. § 1981, and 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

3. Enter an Order requiring the defendant to make the plaintiff-intervenor and the plaintiff class whole by awarding them the position(s) they would have occupied in the absence of race discrimination, back-pay (plus interest), declaratory and injunctive relief, lost seniority, lost benefits and lost pension benefits.

4. Grant the plaintiff-intervenor and the plaintiff class such other relief and benefits as the cause of justice may require, including, but not limited to, an award of costs, attorney's fees and expenses.

Respectfully submitted,

and Plaintiff Class
